FRANK J. GREGO, one of the winners of the Antioch News auction, is sure he'll have plenty of ammunition for this hunting season as he collects the shells he purchased through the auction at Gibbs & Jensen. (Antioch News Photo)

3 Winners In Auction: Olson, Carlson, Grego

Three lucky men won't have to worry about ammunition for hunting season this year. They are the three high bidders in the Antioch News auction of thirty boxes of Remington Express 12 gauge shotgun shells. Each of three bidders in the auction was able to buy ten boxes of shells at a price set by himself. The three lucky men are the ones who turned in the three highest bids in the auction. Retail value of the shells was $36.40. High bidder was C. B. Olson, Rt. 3, Box 333, Antioch. Mr. Olson was on a trip to Canada when we called to tell him his good fortune. He had bid $28.01. His wife picked up the shells. Mr. Olson, she said, had fallen and broken his leg on his trip, so was unable to come in to claim the shells. Next high bidder was Frank J. Grego, Rt. 5, Box 199, Antioch, with a bid of $25.55. Mr. Grego showed up, had his picture taken and claimed his shells. Next, and lowest bid of the three, was Jim Carlson, 533 Winsor Drive, Antioch, who bought his ten boxes of shells for $25.00. There will be no auction this week, but next week's Antioch News will carry details of the next auction item and an entry blank and rules.

KATHY KELLY AND THERESA VAILES read the letter which accompanied the check for $20.00 sent to them by Ken Kirchmeyer. (Antioch News Photo)

Two Happy Little Girls

Theresa Vailes and Kathy Kelly, the two little girls who found the $10 bill and turned it in to the Antioch News office last week, are con-

KEN KIRCHMEYER, of Kirchmeyer's Construction Co., vined that honesty is the best policy. Each is $15 richer than she was before reporting their find. We received a letter last week praising the honesty of the two girls, and containing a check for $20 to pass on to Theresa and Kathy. The letter and check were from Ken Kirchmeyer, of the Kirchmeyer Construction Co. We had hoped to get a picture of Ken presenting the check to the girls, but he had to fly out of town Monday and was unable to come in.

In addition, no one ever showed up to claim the $10 that was found. So we returned it to the girls. Kathy and Theresa weren't quite sure what they'd do with their new-found riches. But they were very happy about the whole thing.

"Backward, Turn Backward"

Some habitually tardy people may get to church on time Sunday morning this week. That is, if they forget this is the week we turn back our clocks.

Sunday morning at 2 a.m. you get back that hour of sleep you lost last spring. This is the night of the year when you can get home at 2 a.m. and still get seven hours sleep by 8 a.m.

Of course, if you plan on going to bed before 2 a.m. it is permissible to turn your clock back before you retire. Or when you arise. But don't forget, or you may have a considerable appointment trouble.

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR 1962

The assessment roll of the Town of Antioch as certified by the Supervisor of Assessments appears on pages 13, 14, 15, and 16 of this issue of The Antioch News.

Every resident of the Town of Antioch should make it a point to check up on the amount of his assessment.

Any property owner who objects to the amount of his assessment should file a formal complaint with the Board of Review, Room 506 at the Court House in Waukegan within 10 days from the date of publication of this assessment roll.

Runs Stop Light, Man Injured

An accident at Routes 173 and 45 on Tuesday morning at about 9 o'clock resulted in injuries to Willard Miller, 74, of Rt. 1, Engle River, Wis., and considerable damage to the car of Rudolph Wagner of Antioch.

Mr. Wagner, according to State Police, was stopped for a red light on Route 173 at its intersection with Rt. 45. He was behind an unknown semi-trailer. When the light turned green, he proceeded across the intersection and was struck by the car of Willard Miller, which was traveling south on Rt. 45.

Mr. Miller was arrested for disobeying a traffic signal, and was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad. Mr. Wagner apparently was not injured. Both cars sustained considerable damage.

He expects to have a Grand Opening in about a month. The lunchroom is located on Lake St. next to the First National Bank.

The present Weasel's Lounge was formerly known as Bussie's.

Jaycee Dance A Smash Hit

The Community Awards Dinner Dance and Charter Celebration held Saturday by the Lake Region Junior Chamber of Commerce was a "success in every respect" officials of the group said.

A sell-out crowd of 400 persons attended the affair Saturday evening at the Wing 'n Fin Club, Volo.

The crowd was entertained by the Ollie Raymond orchestra and singer Connie Mitchell of CBS radio.

The Community awards ceremony took place before the floor show, and saw Richard Prossie getting the "Outstanding Leadership Award for Antioch Township High School."

Thomas Freund of Fox Lake received a similar award for his leadership at Grant High School. John Dupre and Earl Dalziel received the Township Distinguished Service Awards for Antioch and Fox Lake respectively.

Jaycees of the year honors went to Robert Gossman for his leadership and work in the Jaycees this past year. Bill Brook was honored with the Testimonial Award for his assistance to the Jaycees in starting the information center and other projects.

Listed among the local club's more successful projects this past year were the Tourist Information Center, their semi-weekly publication, "The Lake Region Doings," the Summer Festival Beauty Pageant, and the Haggen Bros. Circus performance this past summer.

How Could We Forget?

We certainly shouldn't have forgotten to mention them, for they were the only Girl Scout Troop there. In the parade for the Antioch Homecoming, we mean.

Grass Lake Girl Scout troop 201 took the First Place blue ribbon for their "Business or Civic Car" entry. And we didn't mention them in the list of winners of prizes in the parade.

Well, we're telling you now. They won a ribbon last year, too. And we hope they win one next year. Are we forgiven, girls?

EDITORIAL

Ships Sail—The World Waits

The re-action of the public to President Kennedy's speech announcing definite steps against the build-up of Soviet power in Cuba demonstrated the solidarity of the American people in time of crisis as it has not been demonstrated since Pearl Harbor.

There was none of the high excitement or rah-rah blustering patriotism, with which such news is sometimes received, among the people we saw. Only quiet pride that the U.S. had finally said "This far, and no farther, no matter what the cost."

It was not the pride of arrogant people, who feel safe and secure, and believe that Khrushchev is only bluffing. Everyone seems to fully realize the possible dangers, and the suffering that may ensue. But it is accepted as the price that must, finally, be paid if we are to preserve our integrity as a nation, and, indeed, if we are to preserve our nation.

What Khrushchev will do in the next few days is the big question, of course. He can, if he chooses, bow gracefully out of the whole thing by proclaiming what he and Cuba have always insisted is true—that Russia has no actual voice in Cuban affairs, and that while the U.S. has committed an act of war by blocking the Soviet's friendly trade with Cuba, he, as a level-headed and peace-loving statesman, will not precipitate a world catastrophe by persisting in his efforts to try to save Cuba from the clutches of the capitalist Americans. He can thus present himself to the nations of the world as the Savior of world peace, and put the U.S. in a very untenable position when he closes the pincers on Berlin.

Whether the next few days bring all-out war, or a continuation of the deadly, nerve-racking skirmishes, carrying always the threat of a mis-step and resulting nuclear warfare, will probably be decided when Soviet ships meet the American blockade. And the whole world will be waiting to hear the results of that meeting.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

The gut-chilling speech by Pres. Kennedy last night (Monday) in which he tossed the nuclear gauntlet to Soviet Russia could make further discussions about the new county Public Works Department and the new courthouse strictly academic.

The President laid it on the line to the Castro-Khrushchev duo in his tough-point-by-point demands and warnings and there is a strong feeling in the air that new construction for the next few months may be halted by government decree or made somewhat foolhardy.

No doubt some people will try to twist the President's abrupt action into a political maneuver here at home, but the vast majority will feel that it was a proper, if extremely dangerous challenge to the Communists.

Let's hope that Nikita is Westernized enough so he won't feel the Oriental compulsion to save face at the risk of an entire civilization.

But life goes on even in the shadow of nuclear war and one manifestation of that life is the upcoming election on Nov. 6.

Showing signs of running out of gas in effort to push through the judicial amendment to the state constitution.

Somewhere along the line this proposal got side-tracked and is heading for defeat.

It appears to us that the people who are advocating the change in the state's court setup failed to get their point across to the precinct committeemen of the two major parties and in many cases have failed to convince candidates on the two tickets that change is necessary and desirable.

Downstate Republicans in particular had made up their minds long before the state convention adopted the reform as a state party plank to oppose the measure and the convention action was meaningless.

The point being stressed by opponents centers on the tenure of the elected judges, who would run for re-election against their records rather than against an opponent who could challenge that record.

We aren't convinced that the judiciary should be so out of touch with the common herd that they are above politics.

Elimination of the justice of the peace courts would have been more justified before the recent reform that cut the number of JP's and put them on a salary basis instead of a fee basis.

With these two points as a rallying cry, it looks from this corner that Illinois will muddle along with the same court system for a while longer.

The new budget proposed at Friday's special meeting of the county board must have come as a surprise to some of the board members who voted to lease IBM data processing equipment for the preparation of tax bills and for other county accounting.

The supervisors went for a fast sales pitch that stressed savings in time and money, but it is going to take a lot of savings to make up the $87,000 a year that it will cost to operate the equipment.

Some of the supervisors are beginning to think that more than 10 minutes should have been spent in discussing the rental plan before passing on the contract.

Organized labor has long been considered to be safely in the Democratic camp and this may be true on the national level, but there is no question about where the construction and building union leaders stand in the local races.

Business managers for most of the building trades unions turned out at Nick's Cocktail Lounge in North Chicago last week to break bread with Charles E. Larson, Republican candidate for Sheriff and Hugo L. Schneider, Jr., GOP candidate for Probate Clerk.

Both candidates were given enthusiastic receptions by the trades union leaders. John Matijevich, Democratic candidate for State Representative, was also on hand and received a solid welcome from the group.

A pair of Jacks appear on hand this week! Yes, Jack Frost has been fitting in and out in the darkness of the night. His tracks are everywhere in our garden and his power over more delicate things is apparent.

A second Jack has also shown his power this week. Our Mr. President has felt it necessary to flex our nation's muscles to repel possible attack and our support is what he needs. Now above all times, let us prove to all nations that Democracy works, when we work together!

THE LATEST REPORT: It's a GIRL for the Ken Smouses! And that's real news! Dorothy Gorlitz served such potent punch at the first stop, that the Moose progressive dinner almost didn't progress, but all kidding aside, they all did show up at the Richard Stroness' for soup and the William Meyers' for the main course. I understand the Jaycee dinner went well over their break-even point. . . . while the Grade School card party was not so fortunate. . . . and it's a boy for the Paul Eckerts!

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: this will be covered well on other pages, I'm sure, but worthy of mention Annie-mae, are John Dupre and Bill Brook for their awards given by the Jaycees.

THE LAST DROP: Eddie Lindstrom must have had deer and goose hunting confused, when he wore a RED baseball cap in a blind at Deer Lake last week. . . . have you seen "Casey" Casella running around in that bygone car, with license plates to match? . . . Leonard Roblin has taken up the sport of Sherwood Forest (bow and arrow you know), and he's pretty good, too!

DID YOU HEAR: There's one good reason why you can't take it with you, it goes before you do.

That's all today, Annie Mae

Trick or Treat For UNICEF

If, this Sunday, you think you have your dates mixed, and that Halloween has arrived early, don't start looking for your calendar. That ghost or goblin at your front door is probably from the Antioch Methodist Church and is working for UNICEF, the United Nation's Children's Fund.

This year the church plans to organize the children into groups and send each group to an assigned area. Thus no family will be called upon to contribute more than once.

The children will meet at the church in costume at 3 p.m. on Sunday, October 28, and a parent or teacher will go out with each group to "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF. At 6 p.m. they will return to the church for refreshments and a party.

Since UNICEF began, it has distributed $320 million dollars all over the world. This aid goes to unfortunate children in the form of milk rations; equipment for maternal and health centers; treatment of trachoma and other eye diseases; a cure for yaws; vaccination against tuberculosis; treatment for leprosy; and protection against malaria.

The "Trick or Treat" program provides less than 20% of the funds used for these projects. The rest comes from the world governments participating in its program. Remember when that doorbell rings, these children are trying to help others much less fortunate than they, so give them your support.

Your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

A unique compact exists in Illinois between the state government and a railroad as it has existed since 1851 and as it will continue to exist because the people will it.

This compact goes back to 1851 when the Illinois Central Railroad was chartered by a special act of the General Assembly. The charter granted the railroad millions of acres of precious land on which to lay its track and build facilities.

In return for this land—one of man's most precious commodities—the company was obligated to pay 7 per cent of its annual gross income to the state.

The percentage paid to the state was in lieu of state and local taxes. This is the oldest tax in effect in Illinois.

In terms of the scope of state government today, the Illinois Central Railroad tax is not large. For the two year fiscal period ending June 30, 1962, the tax was $7,401,251.

The amount is not much when it is compared with the more than $500 million required to support the public assistance program in this state. On the other hand, $7,401,251 is enough money to pay for a mental health clinic, for example.

Our forefathers in Illinois were wise in not giving away the people's land pure and simple. This compact between state and railroad is contained in the Constitution of this state as a basic law of Illinois.

The Constitutional provision holds: "No contract, obligation or liability whatever, of the Illinois Central Railroad Company to pay any money into the State treasury . . . shall ever be released, suspended, modified, altered, remitted or in any manner diminished or impaired by legislative or other authority . . ."

Flood Action Stepped Up

The Chain O' Lakes Area Flood Control Committee is stepping up its drive to collect statements of loss from all property owners who suffered flood damages in the spring floods of 1960 and 1962. All subdivision associations, organizations and individuals of the Chain O' Lakes and Fox River are requested to take an active part in the program of Flood Control.

Information is urgently needed regarding the extent of loss and damages suffered by all individuals resulting from last spring's flood and the flood of 1960. This information is vitally needed for presentation to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers to induce them to take constructive action in this area.

Louis D'Alba, Chief of the Army Engineers Flood Control Section has stated that Congress will act only if it is shown that damages from flooding are sufficiently high to warrant an investment in flood control by the U. S. Government in the Fox River Basin. D'Alba reported it is up to each community to gather data on flood damages and requested reports of every known case of damage and loss.

The Chain O' Lakes Flood Control Committee has prepared a very simple, uncomplicated report form on which property owners can list flood-caused damage and loss of many different kinds. These reports are in no sense a claim for reimbursement, for there exists no provision for such payments. The statement of loss forms have been distributed throughout the entire Fox River and Chain O' Lakes area.

The committee reports they are well pleased with the response to the program to date and wish to thank those who have returned the completed forms. If your neighbor suffered flood losses but does not live in the area permanently, the Committee suggests you send them a form to complete and return.

State Rep. Wm. J. Murphy of Petite Lake, who recently appointed this committee of citizens interested in flood control, urges with the committee, the continued cooperation of all subdivision associations, organizations and citizens to lend a helping

Soo & CGW Study Merger

A study will be undertaken to determine the feasibility and possible advantages of merging into one system the Soo Line Railroad Company and the Chicago Great Western Railway Company.

Announcement of the study was made jointly by Leonard H. Murray, President of the Soo, and Edward T. Reidy, Chairman of the Board and President of the CGW. The study will be conducted by personnel from the staffs of the two companies. It will be begun immediately. No date has been set for its completion.

The study will seek to determine the economies, efficiencies, advantages and other aspects of a merger of the two companies. A final determination will be made later as to whether a merger proposal should be placed before the stockholders of the two companies and regulatory agencies.

Combined, the Soo and CGW would form a rail transportation system of some 6,200 miles touching 11 states.

The Soo operates approximately 4,700 miles of railroad in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Upper Michigan, North Dakota, South Dakota and Montana. It interconnects Chicago, Minneapolis-St. Paul, and Duluth-Superior, and connects the rail transportation system of the U.S. directly with that of Canada at three points.

The CGW operates nearly 1,500 miles of line in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, and Nebraska. It interconnects Chicago, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Omaha and Kansas City.

Letters to the Editor

Now that our nation has declared a state of emergency, the nation has been placed in a position whereby every citizen should be prepared to play a part, whether it be in civil defense, defense plant work or just bird watching.

All citizens should brace themselves to the reality of doing their best in preparedness to face the issue in a spirit of helping each other.

Antioch in the past, during World War I, II and the Korean conflict, did a splendid job and at no time did any of our good citizens cause any alarm of anxiety.

Antioch is very fortunate to have a good police department and splendid rescue unit, but in the time of emergency they cannot alone handle a confused public. Therefore, it will be necessary to call on the public for assistance in organizing the various departments of the civil defense program.

Your local defense director has attended many meetings in the past getting information along the lines of organization work to be carried on as set up by the defense program and now that the zero hour is approaching Antioch will be among the rest to get prepared.

To all Antioch citizens: do not get excited, listen to your radio, view your television program and read your daily newspaper with care. The time is just right for the propaganda experts to do their job well in an area where the citizens are not posted. Antioch is not in that category; the citizens are well posted and will rally to the cause when the right time comes for action.

In announcing the new record, a spokesman for the national Holstein organization said that it compared to the average cow's annual output of 7,211 lbs. of milk containing 270 lbs. of butterfat.

Wilkins Outlines Needs of Schools

George T. Wilkins, Illinois superintendent of public instruction, told educators attending the 13th Annual Conference of Northern Illinois Schoolmen meeting at North Central College that Illinois Schoolmen must "strive to achieve seven major objectives in the immediate future. They Are:

1. The establishment of a scientifically sound and adequate system of school finance;
2. The modernization of school laboratories, vocational workshops, technical training centers, libraries and visual teaching equipment;
3. Expansion of guidance and counseling services to cover one hundred per cent of the high school enrollment, including two years after graduation as well as seventh and eighth grade students;
4. Acceleration of the junior college program, to provide better educational opportunities for all students, and to afford extended vocational and technical training for youth and adults;
5. Establishment of a statewide educational television system;
6. Development of effective clation of this area I wish to thank you for using the cartoon Eddie the Educator. We feel that Eddie has many pertinent facts to present to the public.

Traffic Safety Awards Won by Women's Clubs

CHICAGO, Oct. 17—Illinois women have been awarded six Certificates of Merit in the 1962 Carol Lane Awards for Traffic Safety, the National Safety Council announced today.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Illinois Optometric Association was granted the award for its holiday safety campaigns. Prior to Labor Day, 1961, the auxiliary mailed 700 letters to member optometrists asking their cooperation in reducing the holiday death toll. It obtained the cooperation of ministerial associations in promoting a "Traffic Safety Sabbath" the week before the kits were provided to mayors, police chiefs and service club members. A total of 8,325 kits were put into circulation by the auxiliary. A similar program was carried out during Memorial Day, 1962.

The Home and School Safety Committee of the Des Plaines Safety Council won its award with its parking clinic, "For Women Only." The committee devised programs to stimulate safety education in schools and to alert adults to the need for better driving habits. In the parking clinic, women were given lessons in parallel and diagonal parking and winter driving, and determined the safest routes for children to follow to school.

The Adams County Farm Bureau and the Clark County Farm Bureau Women's Committees each earned certificates for programs of clearing obstructed intersections on rural roads and educating their neighbors in the importance of proper marking for farm vehicles.

With the cooperation of county and township road officials and interested organizations, road intersections and railroad grade crossings in the county were surveyed, weed and brush obstructions to visibility were cleared and corn was topped where necessary. Through literature and personal contact the women told farmers of the requirements of Illinois law that farm vehicles carry a red flag by day and lights by night.

The Sangamon County Home Bureau was given the award for its extensive street and highway safety program. Members spent an evening in traffic court to gain a better understanding of problems created by traffic offenders, co-operated in a two-day vehicle safety check sponsored by the Springfield Traffic Safety Council, distributed holiday safe driving kits before the July 4th holiday, wrote news articles on proper marking of farm vehicles, and aided the Safety Council in a traffic violations survey at busy intersections. Bureau members also attended two driver clinics to develop their driving skills.

The Women's Division of the Illinois Association of Commerce and Industry, Springfield, was granted the certificate for its driver improvement clinic for women. The clinic covered such subjects as the reason for driver improvement, physical limitations to driving, standards for good eyesight, rules of the road, traffic courts, simple mechanics, moral aspects of driving, good insurance practices, legal responsibility, and driver license examinations.

Polio Vaccine Program Delayed

The Lake County Medical Society, acting on the recommendation of its Polio Advisory Committee, has deferred plans for a community-wide Sabin Oral Vaccine program until early spring 1963.

Dr. Elmer Kadison of Highland Park, Chairman of the Committee, indicated that the Committee would continue to study the recommendations of the United States Public Health Service and the results of other vaccine programs. Dr. Kadison emphasized that people should continue to receive the Salk vaccine in order to maintain the high level of immunity that has been attained. He pointed out that the present low incidence of polio in this county and elsewhere is believed to be due to the widespread use of the Salk vaccine. No known cases have occurred in Lake County in recent months.

Earlier this month the Chicago Medical Society announced deferral of the vaccine program in Cook County.

Dr. Kadison announced that the Polio Advisory Committee would continue to study future developments and make recommendations accordingly.

The Sack That Holds You In—Six Pounds of Living Skin

Quick now—What is the largest organ of the human body?

The lungs? Liver? Heart? Guess again. Of course the answer to this catch question is—the skin. Not only is it our largest organ, but the skin is also one of our most interesting and mystic structures.

It's that outer rampart which separates us from the rest of the universe; the sack which contains that juice or essence which is you, or which is me; a most defensive against insects, poisons, and germs.

As an organ of secretion—usually weighing about six pounds in an adult—the skin removes poisonous wastes from the blood through perspiration. While perspiration helps to eliminate water from the body, it also serves to regulate the body temperature and keep the tough outer layer of the skin, called the epidermis, soft and pliable.

For many years, diseases of the skin were the subject of various and sundry superstitious beliefs; chief among them was the idea that skin disorders erupted from impurity of the blood; another had it that they evolved from impure thoughts.

Needless to say, both theories proved shallow and inadequate, for we now know that there are almost as many causes as there are disorders.

Some disorders are caused by general disease conditions such as measles, scarlet fever, smallpox and syphilis. Some are due to the invasion of the skin by animal parasites. Some are expressions of a peculiar hyper-sensitivity of the blood, such as urticaria (hives).

Other sources of skin disorders include: infections of the skin by bacteria infections dependent upon a general condition; and irritation of a nerve or hemorrhage into a nerve ganglion. Still others are peculiar to the skin itself and appear not to affect any other internal organ, such as psoriasis and eczema.

With so many skin disorders "making the rounds," we cannot over-emphasize proper care of the skin. While creams and astringents don't really "nourish the skin" as many portend—only the blood can do that—they certainly are effective as cleansing agents.

Massage is also important in skin care for it stimulates the circulation of the blood which—as we said—is the source of true nourishment.

Unless you have a skin disorder or exceptionally dry skin, washing the face thoroughly with soap and water is essential to real cleanliness. Creams, powders and other cosmetics have a tendency to clog the pores, thus obstructing the release of sweat. For this reason, their application should be preceded with a thorough washing of the face.

Some persons have sensitive skins. An allergy may not be a factor, but the skin is susceptible to easy chapping or chafing. These people usually have dry skins and can be helped by the application of creams and oils for surface protection.

STATE CAPITOL NEWS

In a series of articles started several weeks ago, Gov. Otto Kerner, in his weekly column, gives a detailed description of the workings of the Illinois Youth Commission's 11 forestry camps. To date, the governor has devoted two issues of his column, "Your Governor Reports," to this subject.

So successful is this seven-year-old program, that Illinois now leads the nation in this type of rehabilitation. The program, said the governor, serves a dual purpose—conserving boys' lives as well as conserving public resources. The boys' forestry work is under the supervision of the Department of Conservation.

Check Extension Cords Frequently

URBANA—Short circuits or complete failure in your extension cords won't occur if you check them frequently and discard them when they start to show wear.

Nearly every extension cord will show signs of weakness before it fails, says O. L. Hoggett, University of Illinois extension safety specialist.

Frayed coverings on fabric-covered cords are one sign of old age. A new cord is also needed when rubber-covered cords become brittle or when

HATH DIFFICULTIES

"Consider the editor. He weareth purple and fine linen. His abode is amongst the mansions of the rich. His wife hath her limousine and his first born sporteth a racing car that can hit up in 80 flat.

"Lo! All the people breaketh their necks to hand him money. A child is born unto the wife of a merchant in the bazaar. The physician getteth ten plunks. The editor writeth a stick and a half and telleth the multitude that the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. Yea, he lieth even as a centurion. And the proud father giveth him a Cremo.

"Behold, the young one groweth up and gradueth. And the editor putteth into his paper a swell notice. Yea, a peach of a notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman, and of her exceeding comeliness. Like the roses of Sharon is she and her gown is played up to beat the band. The dress-maker getteth two score and four iron men. And the editor getteth a note of thanks.

"The daughter goeth on a journey. And the editor throweth himself on the story of the farewell party. It runneth a column, solid. And the fair one remembereth him from afar off with a picture postal card that costeth six for a nickel.

"Behold, she returneth and the youth of the city fall down and worship. She picketh a lemon. But the editor calleth him one of our most promising young men and getteth away with it. And they send unto him a bid to the wedding feast and behold, the bids are fashioned by Muntgomery Hawbuck, in a far city.

Flowery and long is the wedding notice which the editor printeth. The minister getteth 10 bones. The groom standeth the editor off for a twelve-month subscription.

"All flesh is grass and in time the wife is gathered into the silo. The minister getteth his bit. The editor printeth a death notice, two columns of obituary, three lodge notices, a cubit of poetry and a card of thanks. And he forgetteth to read proof on the head, and the darned thing cometh out 'Gone to Her Last Roasting Place.'

"And all that are akin to the deceased jumpeth on the editor with exceeding great jumps. And they pulleth out their ads and cancelleth their subscriptions and they swing their hammer unto the third and fourth generations.

the rubber covering begins to crack. In emergencies you can repair these cords with plastic or friction tape. But never use household adhesive tape to make electrical repairs.

Check plugs on extension cords frequently for loose or bare wires. You can repair the plugs easily by cutting off the ragged ends of the wire and reattaching the plug.

Remember that extension cords can usually carry only one appliance. If you have

HOMEMADE SOLUTION RETARDS FIRES

URBANA—Keep this a fire-free Halloween by treating your children's costumes with a fire-retarding preparation.

University of Illinois safety specialist O. L. Hogsett recommends the following recipe: Mix seven ounces of borax and three ounces of boric acid in two quarts of water.

Either spray this solution on or dip cloth garments in it.

This is a temporary fire-retarding agent, so you can use it on sheets, pillowcases and other such articles and wash it out after the costume has served its purpose.

You can use the same solution on crepe paper, but you'll have to spray it on. Salt crystals of the solution will probably form, but they will glisten and add an extra touch to the costume.

You don't need to limit the use of this solution to Halloween. Use it whenever you think there might be a chance of fire.

Spandex and Olefin to Be More Available

Consumers can expect greater availability of spandex and olefin fibers this fall and winter, reports a University home economist.

Mrs. Ruth Galbraith explains that spandex is the synthetic elastic used in foundation garments and swim suits. Here are some of its advantages: The fiber has a high degree of stretch and yet returns quickly to its original shape. It is lighter weight than rubber but gives the same amount of control. While the fibers tend to pick up oil, and as a result turn yellow, they do not deteriorate.

If their construction permits, garments containing spandex can be washed safely in automatic equipment. Some spandex fibers, especially Lyera, however, must not be bleached with a chlorine bleach. To be sure whether chlorine bleach can be used, check the label on the garment.

Olefin fibers are not yet so widely used as spandex, but they are beginning to creep into such articles as carpets, sweaters and rope. Known for strength, the fibers have many other advantages: They are almost as resistant to abrasion as nylon, and they are water resistant, very resilient, fairly easy to care for, extremely light weight (will float in water) and resistant to light behind glass, and they will hold permanent creases under certain conditions.

The current problems with olefins are poor dyeability and very low melting point, so the fibers can't be pressed with most irons. They may shrink if dried at too high a dryer setting. The lowest temperature setting should be used. The fibers also attract and hang onto oilborne stains.

Two trade names for olefin fibers are Herculan and Reevon.

Keep Guns Away From Children

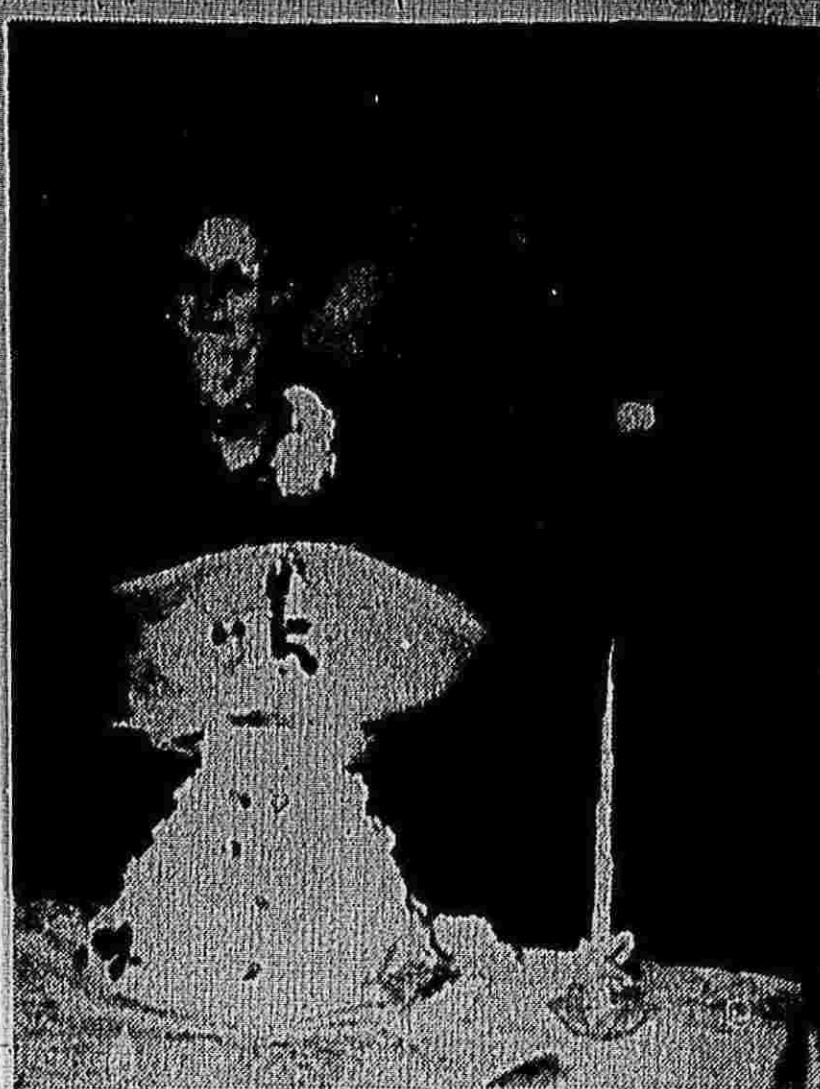

Even if you believe all the hunting guns in your house are unloaded, play safe and keep them away from children, suggests O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois extension safety specialist.

For the most protection, store guns and ammunition separately under lock and key. A cabinet with a door that can be locked is the safest place for guns. If, however, you don't have a cabinet, pick one special place that is inaccessible to children.

ATH Sophs Score Win

The Antioch Sophs took advantage of a blocked punt early in the first period to draw first blood and went on to trounce Round Lake 28-0. Paul Williams smashed through to knock down the punt attempt and Rich Mason recovered to run it into the end zone for the score.

Antioch's second score came when quarterback Wally Henning intercepted a Round Lake lateral and scampered 38 yards for the TD.

John Morgan, having a good running day, went 13 yards for Antioch's third touchdown in the final stanza. Morgan tallied again late in the 4th quarter to make the final score stand at 28-0.

Paul Lindblad, Carl Mead and Torry Schneider were lauded by Coach Doug Risberg for their fine work on defense.

Harvest Open Slated In Cold Weather

The Harvest Open scheduled at the Spring Valley Country Club Oct. 27, and 28 will at least give everyone a chance to see whether he is a real dyed-in-the-wool golfer or just another fair-weather variety.

With the temperatures steadily dropping the last few days the golfing die-hards may find it necessary to dress more for a skating party than a golf outing.

Plans are moving ahead, however, and it is reported that there are still some tee-off times available. The event is being sponsored by the Spring Valley Country Club and will include two days of golf, dinner both days, and prizes.

Admiral Visits Chicago Area

The Navy's Chief of Information, Rear Admiral John S. McCain, Jr., flew to Chicago last week for his first visit since taking over as the Navy's top spokesman two months ago.

The cigar-chewing two-star admiral was scheduled to arrive at Meigs Field at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday (Oct. 17) from Washington, D.C.

Motoring to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center on Thursday, the admiral toured the Navy's Journalist school in the morning and the Public Affairs Office of the 9th Naval District headquarters in the afternoon.

At noon he was guest speaker at the combined luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club and the Navy League Council of Evanston. That evening Admiral McCain addressed a meeting of North Shore Naval Reservists at Great Lakes.

The admiral began Friday with a visit to the Fleet Home Town News Center at Great Lakes and afterwards had lunch with the area Navy Public Information office.

Admiral McCain was honored Friday afternoon as reviewing official at the graduation ceremony of more than 800 recruits. Later a reception was held for him by Rear Admiral Ira H. Nunn, Commandant of the 9th Naval District, who was his host during his Great Lakes visit.

Winding up his tour Admiral McCain spoke Friday night to the Illinois Commandery of the Naval Order of the United States at Chicago's Tavern Club, then attended the Navy Ball at Northwestern University.

Be Safe—Look In The Mirror

An essential but often neglected factor in safe driving is proper use of the rear and side view mirrors, according to Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Chicago Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department.

"Traffic hazards are not confined to obstructions and cars in front of drivers," he pointed out. "A good driver keeps himself constantly informed as to what is going on behind and alongside him by utilizing his rear and side view mirrors at all times."

Sielski cautioned that it is imperative for drivers always to check their rear view mirrors before stopping, slowing down, parking, turning, passing, changing lanes, or pulling out from parking places.

Interior rear view mirrors are standard equipment on all cars, and they are adequate to show you what is directly behind your car, he said. However, Sielski added, these standard mirrors leave a large blind spot in which an entire car positioned just off a driver's left fender can be hidden from view. Unless a driver has a side mirror covering this blind spot, he always should turn his head and look back over his left shoulder before turning left or changing lanes.

"Modern highway and city driving demand frequent use of rear and side view mir-

HOMEMADE SOLUTION RETARDS FIRES

URBANA—Keep this a fire-free Halloween by treating your children's costumes with a fire-retarding preparation.

University of Illinois safety specialist O. L. Hogsett recommends the following recipe: Mix seven ounces of borax and three ounces of boric acid in two quarts of water.

Either spray this solution on or dip cloth garments in it.

This is a temporary fire-retarding agent, so you can use it on sheets, pillowcases and other such articles and wash it out after the costume has served its purpose.

You can use the same solution on crepe paper, but you'll have to spray it on. Salt crystals of the solution will probably form, but they will glisten and add an extra touch to the costume.

You don't need to limit the use of this solution to Halloween. Use it whenever you think there might be a chance of fire.

Spandex and Olefin to Be More Available

Consumers can expect greater availability of spandex and olefin fibers this fall and winter, reports a University home economist.

Mrs. Ruth Galbraith explains that spandex, is the synthetic elastic used in foundation garments and swim suits. Here are some of its advantages: The fiber has a high degree of stretch and yet returns quickly to its original shape. It is lighter weight than rubber but gives the same amount of control. While the fibers tend to pick up oil, and as a result turn yellow, they do not deteriorate.

If their construction permits, garments containing spandex can be washed safely in automatic equipment. Some spandex fibers, especially Lycra, however, must not be bleached with a chlorine bleach. To be sure whether chlorine bleach can be used, check the label on the garment.

Olefin fibers are not yet so widely used as spandex, but they are beginning to creep into such articles as carpets, sweaters and rope. Known for strength, the fibers have many other advantages: They are almost as resistant to abrasion as nylon, and they are water resistant, very resilient, fairly easy to care for, extremely light weight (will float in water) and resistant to light behind glass, and they will hold permanent creases under certain conditions.

The current problems with olefins are poor dyeability and very low melting point, so the fibers can't be pressed with most irons. They may shrink if dried at too high a dryer setting. The lowest temperature setting should be used. The fibers also attract and hang onto oilborne stains.

Two trade names for olefin fibers are Herculon and Reevon.

Keep Guns Away From Children

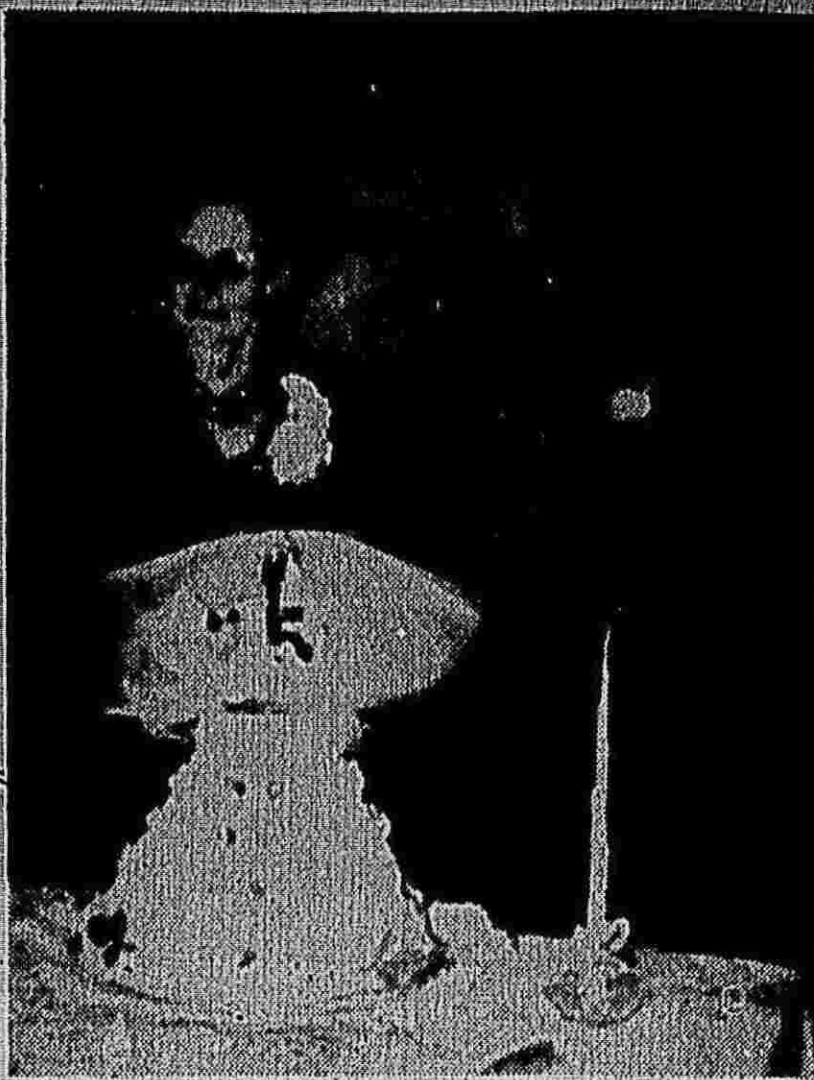

Even if you believe all the hunting guns in your house are unloaded, play safe and keep them away from children, suggests O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois extension safety specialist.

For the most protection, store guns and ammunition separately under lock and key. A cabinet with a door that can be locked is the safest place for guns. If, however, you don't have a cabinet, pick one special place that is inaccessible to children.

Be Safe—Look In The Mirror

An essential but often neglected factor in safe driving is proper use of the rear and side view mirrors, according to Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Chicago Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department.

"Traffic hazards are not confined to obstructions and cars in front of drivers," he pointed out. "A good driver keeps himself constantly informed as to what is going on behind and alongside him by utilizing his rear and side view mirrors at all times."

Sielski cautioned that it is imperative for drivers always to check their rear view mirrors before stopping, slowing down, parking, turning, passing, changing lanes, or pulling out from parking places.

Interior rear view mirrors are standard equipment on all cars, and they are adequate to show you what is directly behind your car, he said. However, Sielski added, these standard mirrors leave a large blind spot in which an entire car positioned just off a driver's left fender can be hidden from view. Unless a driver has a side mirror covering this blind spot, he always should turn his head and look back over his left shoulder before turning left or changing lanes.

"Modern highway and city driving demand frequent use of rear and side view mir-

ATHS Fine Arts Department Opens 1962-63 Season

Season's Plays Include Comedy and Tragedy

The light-hearted comedy, "Harvey," the touching and tragic "Diary of Anne Frank," plus an evening of one-act plays are this season's offering of the Fine Arts Department at the High School.

The Diary of Anne Frank. Dramatized by Francis Goodrich and Albert Hackett, and adapted from the book, Anne Frank: The Diary of a Young Girl, is the story of a young Jewish girl and her family who hide from the Nazis' persecution during the Second World War. Their hiding place for two years is the abandoned loft of an old factory building in Amsterdam, Holland. With unusual insight the play reveals the relations between eight people living under extraordinary conditions, facing hunger, the ever present threat of discovery and death, a feeling of complete estrangement from the outside world, and above all the boredom, the petty misunderstandings, and constant cruelties which came of living in such confined quarters and under an almost unbearable strain. The play provides a warmly human and fascinating commentary on human behavior and its amazing paradoxes.

HARVEY is the story of a certain Elwood P. Dowd and his friendship with a rather large (6 ft.) white rabbit who wears a bow tie. The engaging aspect of this relationship is that only Elwood can see Harvey. Further comedy is provided by Elwood's sister and a psychiatrist who really needs help by the end of the play. A favorite of all audiences, it had a prolonged run on Broadway in 1944-45. The author is Mary Coyle.

EVENING OF ONE-ACT PLAYS

The Fine Arts Department of Antioch High School is adding a new program to its list this year. This program should be a welcome addition to all of you who enjoy fine plays. On December 15 at 8 p.m. the curtain will go up on an evening of one-act plays, which will feature for the most part the underclassmen of Antioch High School. This year the themes of the one-act plays will be generally those centering around a "Holiday" or Christmas theme. We of the Fine Arts Department are looking forward to this addition to our programs. The one-act plays will be under the general direction of Mr. Smouse and Miss Ruth Nickelson.

SONG OF NORWAY

The annual musical production will be May 3rd and 4th, 1963. This year's presentation will be the hit Broadway musical, "Song of Norway." Based on the life and music of Edward Grieg, this great show ran for 860 performances at the Imperial Theatre in New York, between 1944 and 1946.

This is a show that employs beautiful music, a true life story, colorful costumes and elaborate scenery. Some of the songs from the show are "Strange Music," "I Love You," "Midsummer's Eve," and "Freddie and His Fiddle." The entire Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A Minor" is featured in the musical and also music from the "Peer Gynt Suite" is heard through vocal solos or incidental music.

The cast will consist of members from the Antioch High School Senior Choir. The accompaniment will be provided by an orchestra comprised of members from the Concert Band and additional musicians to complete the string section. Choral director and dramatic coach is Miss Tronchuk. Musical director is Mr. Rush and technical director is Mr. Smouse.

THE ANTIOCH HIGH SCHOOL BAND with director Joe Rush. The band, now a part of the newly formed Fine Arts Department, will present at least 2 concerts this season.

THE ANTIOCH HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR poses with director Miss Della Mae Tronchuk.

Fine Arts Personnel Has Varied Background in Music and Dramatics

Mr. Rush

Mr. Rush is a native of this area, having graduated from Warren High School, Gurnee. He then attended DePaul University, Greencastle, Indiana, graduating with a Bachelor of Music degree. While a student at DePaul, Mr. Rush was the director of the opera workshop on campus. He also was a member of the university orchestra and band. Mr. Rush did graduate work at the University of Indiana and received a Master of Music degree from Vandercook College of Music, Chicago. Mr. Rush taught for two years in Indiana prior to coming to Antioch High School.

Miss Tronchuk

Miss Tronchuk attended both high school and college in Milwaukee, Wis. After graduating from Messner High School, Milwaukee, she attended the former Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, for one year and transferred to Mount Mary College, where she graduated with a major in music education and a Bachelor of Philosophy degree. While a student in college, Miss Tronchuk was a member of the chorus, orchestra and band. She also directed the Junior Class Chorus and Senior Class Chorus. Miss Tronchuk has attended the Fred Waring Choral School, Delaware Water Gap, Pa., Western State College, Greeley, Colo., and the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee.

Mr. Smouse

Mr. Smouse received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hope College, Holland, Mich., with a major in English. He then attended Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, and majored in music. Further education at Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Ill., led towards a Master of Science in Education degree, which Mr. Smouse received in 1956. Before coming to Antioch in 1956, Mr. Smouse was a member of the San Diego Light Opera Company, San Diego, Calif., for one season, and the Community Theatre in Pacific Beach, Calif.

Miss Nickelson

Miss Ruth Nickelson received her B. A. from Elmhurst College and M. A. from Northwestern University. Her graduate field was English, which she has taught at Antioch High School for four years. She directed "What a Life" and "One Foot in Heaven" in 1959 and appeared in "Time Out for Ginger."

THE HIGH SCHOOL DANCE BAND. The group plays for many of the dances and hops held by the school.

THE ANTIOCH HIGH SCHOOL SWING CHOIR

Varied Musical Program is Planned For Band and Choir

SPRING BAND CONCERT

The annual Spring Band concert will be held May 18 at 8 p.m. The Band, under direction of Mr. Rush will provide an evening of fine band music, which should prove to be a rewarding experience to all who attend. The outstanding works which will be performed will be the three numbers the band performed for the State Band contest. Along with these numbers, special soloist and sol groups will be on the program to make up an evening of fine music.

Before the concert the Antioch High School Music Association will hold its annual honors night supper and during the concert awards will be presented to the music awards winners of both the band and choir. All in all this should be an outstanding evening for all who attend.

CHRISTMAS GIFT CONCERT

All of the choral organizations of Antioch High School will be featured at the annual Christmas Gift Concert, Sunday, December 2, at 8 p.m. The Swing Choir, a select group of 12 singers from the Senior Choir, will open the evening's concert, followed by several small vocal ensembles and the Girls Glee Club.

The second portion of the concert will feature the Senior Choir in the presentation of Benjamin Britten's "A Ceremony of Carols." This beautiful choral work was composed in 1942 for treble voices and arranged for mixed chorus in 1953. The words, mostly Old English, are largely anonymous and in Benjamin Britten's unusual and characteristic melodic settings, they seem to suggest the simplicity of centuries old festivity. This will be the third appearance of the Senior Choir this year, but the only complete choral concert for the 1962-1963 school year. The director of choral activities is Miss Della Mae Tronchuk.

FALL BAND CONCERT

The first performance of the 1962-63 Antioch High School Concert Band will be November 17 at 8 p.m. The concert band, under the direction of Mr. Rush, is made up of 70 Antioch High School students.

For their first concert the concert band will be offering a very interesting program of fine music. Some of the outstanding works which will be performed are the Nocturne from a Midsummer Night's Dream by Mendelssohn, which will feature the French horn section; selection from "The Sound of Music" by Rodgers and Hammerstein, "The Magic Trumpet," a solo for B flat trumpet, with band accompaniment featuring Frank Ehrhart as trumpet soloist; and two works which should be very interesting to serious music lovers, the overture to the opera "Pique Dame" by F. Von Suppe, and Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral from the opera "Lohengrin" by Richard Wagner.

Following the formal concert by the band the Antioch High School Dance Band will be offering a dance for all those who attended the concert. Last year the Dance Band was rated the outstanding Class A dance band in Northern Illinois at the annual Oak Lawn Stage Band Festival, so for those who enjoy the sound of the big band this should be a real treat.

H. S. Board To Join In Curriculum Study

The Antioch High School Board at its last meeting, appointed a committee to meet with the faculty education council for a study of the proposed curriculum of the High School for 1963-64.

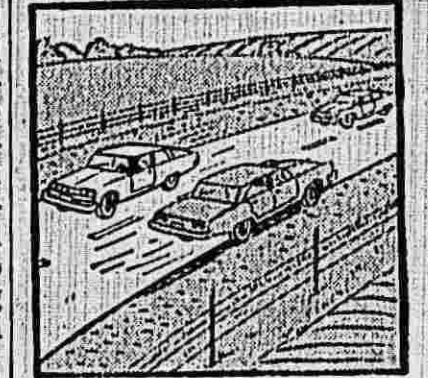

The three Board members on the committee are Roger Prossie, Boyd Osmond and Dr. Richard Ripley.

The committee members will keep the Board of Education informed as to plans for curriculum for the coming year, so that the Board may plan its budget accordingly.

The combined group will meet several times during the year, the first meeting being planned for October 31.

DRIVING
Traffic Safety
by Charles F. Carpenter
Secretary of State

RUNNING OFF ROADWAY
There have been several newspaper stories recently concerning fatal or serious accidents which were caused by running off onto the shoulder of the road. This driving error is usually caused by driver inattention or distraction. Sometimes a car is forced off the roadway by another vehicle.

If a driver should find himself in this predicament, he may usually escape without injury if he takes the proper corrective steps . . .

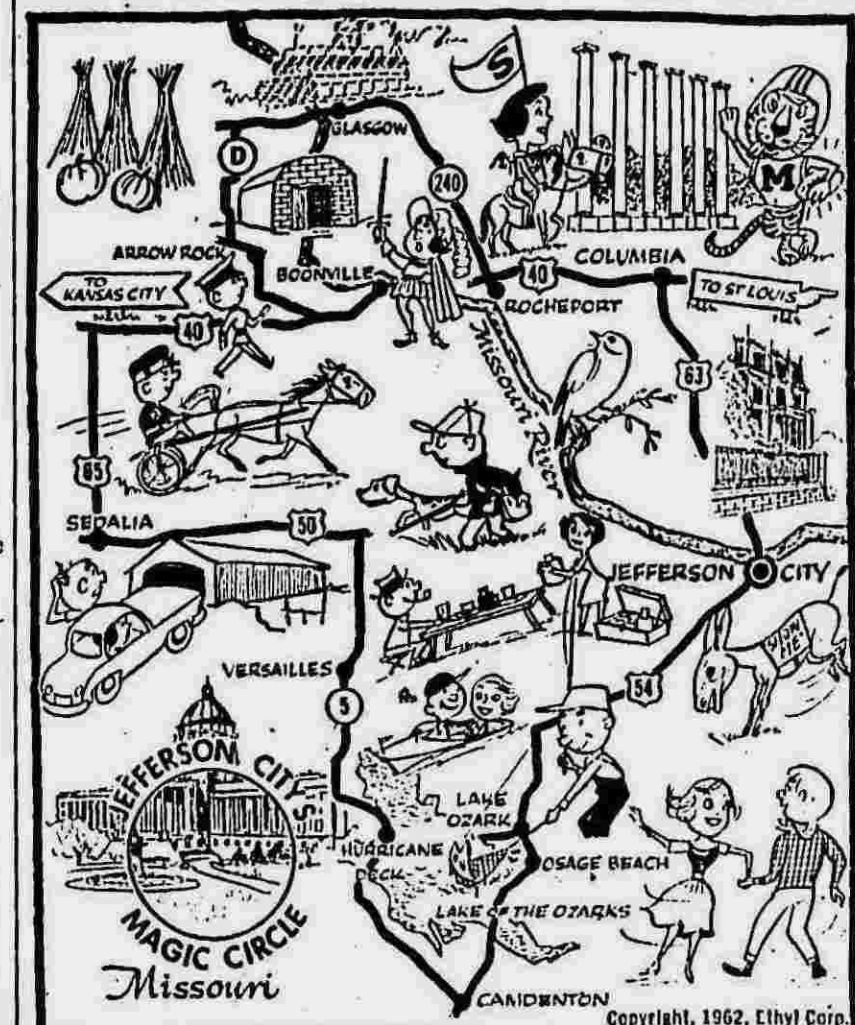

1. Do not jerk steering wheel to the left in an attempt to get back on the pavement.
2. Hold wheel tightly and steer straight ahead.
3. Do not hit brake hard. Apply light, intermittent pressure to slow down gradually, unless forced to stop by culvert or other obstruction.
4. When speed has been reduced almost to a stop, pull back onto the pavement after looking carefully for oncoming traffic behind you.

Most accidents of this type are caused by the driver losing control in trying to jerk the car back on the pavement, especially if there is a low shoulder. The procedure outlined above will enable you to safely handle such a situation if it arises; however, your first concern should be to stay on the road.

Autumn is ideal for a Magic Circle motor tour of Missouri's color-burnished heartland, starting at the imposing Capitol in Jefferson City. Murals tell the state's exciting history, abetted by a collection of relics, flags and pioneer utensils. The nearby Governor's Mansion is a gem of ornate French-Italian architecture popular in the 1870's.

North is Columbia, home of the University of Missouri, first state university west of the Mississippi (1839), with the world's first School of Journalism (1908), and famed for its football Tigers which jam Memorial Stadium in the fall. Nationally known, too, is neighboring elite Stephens College for women. Historic pioneer country highlights include Rocheport and Glasgow, once thriving riverboat towns; Arrow Rock's famed Tavern, a white frame hostelry which has dispensed hospitality continually since 1834; Booneville, where Daniel Boone's Lick Trail ended and the Santa Fe Trail began; has preserved the pioneer hall, a frontier forerunner of the little theater movement. The distinguished Kemper Military School is located here.

Sedalia, once lively terminus of the Rawhide Trail for cattle drives, today prides itself on numerous garden and square dance grounds, a showense of agricultural and industrial prosperity, and for harness racing. Outside town is a prized red one-lane covered bridge. Final objective is Lake of the Ozarks State Park, a mecca for boating, fishing and square dance festivals.

Sequoits Play Well For 58 Minutes, Lose 26-18

Slip-Ups Hand Win To Round Lake

For fifty-eight minutes Friday night the Antioch Sequoits played heads-up football. Unfortunately, the contest went the full sixty minutes and the extra two minutes gave Round Lake the victory margin.

Two long scoring plays, one in the second quarter and one in the final period gave Round Lake the 26-18 win. Round Lake marched from their own 9 yard line on a sustained drive early in the first period that ended with Bob Perrone going over for the score from the 8 yard line.

Antioch countered with a 62 yard pass play from John Lear to Les Geist. The score remained knotted 6-6 until the last 19 seconds of the first half.

With about 20 seconds left in the half Frank Lobaza slipped past the Antioch defenders and took a 25 yard pass from Tim Bruns to go all the way for the touchdown. Glen Waters converted the extra point and the score at half-time remained 13-6.

Early in the third period Antioch began a drive on their own 30 yard line sparked by the running of Rich Fitch and two pass plays by Brownlee and Horton good for 17 and 20 yards respectively. The drive was capped with Fitch going in for the score from the Round Lake 3 yard line.

The Panthers came back to drive from their own 28 yard line on a series of power plays with Waters capping the drive with a 3 yard scoring plunge.

In the fourth period, quarterback Jim Brownlee loosened up his pitching arm and took the Sequoits 66 yards in four plays to make the score 20-18.

Starting on their own 34 yard line, Brownlee threw to Tom Furlan good for 24 yards. Rich Fitch gathered in another Brownlee aerial and scrambled 30 yards before the Round Lake defenders managed to bring him down.

Brownlee completed his aerial exhibition with a 12 yard passing stint to Les Geist for Antioch's third TD.

Warren Wins, In 2nd Place

Warren's Blue Devils moved into sole possession of second place in the Northwest Conference football race Friday by defeating Grayslake 28-12 at Gurnee.

John McClure, ace back for the Blue Devils, scored three touchdowns and puffed up 166 yards in 15 carries to spark the Warren victory.

Grayslake, trailing 21-0 early in the final period scored for the first time on a seven yard run by Tim Hart.

Warren promptly countered with a 13 yard touchdown pass, Grom to McClure. The Rams tallied again late in the quarter on a 30 yard pass play to make the final score 28-12.

Scouts Rout Grant, 45 - 0

An off-side penalty fouled a spirited Grant High School touchdown drive early in the first quarter of their game with Lake Forest. The penalty turned what might have been a close contest into a Lake Forest 45-0 rout.

The victory marked the Scouts' 28th in a row and they only have to get by Antioch this week to clinch at least a tie for the conference title.

Shortly after the Grant drive was halted by the penalty, Lake Forest recovered a Grant fumble on the Bulldogs' 41 yard line. A few plays later Tim Weigel carried the ball from the 25 yard line for the touchdown.

The Scouts scored twice more before the halftime ceremonies to make the tally 20-0 at that point.

Lake Forest tallied once in the third period on an interception and 3 times in the final stanza to make the final score stand at 45-0.

The score remained 20-18 until the final two minutes of the game.

With fourth down and nine yards to go for a first, Round Lake caught the Sequoits by surprise with a fake kick and sent Bob Perrone rambling 50 yards for the final touchdown.

The Sequoits sorely missed hard running halfback and place kick specialist Greg Gates who was sidelined with blood-poisoning in the arm.

Rich Fitch was again the standout for the Sequoits, running from the fullback slot and backing up the line on defense.

Quarterback Jim Brownlee turned in a fine performance as did Les Geist at end, gathering in two touchdowns passes plus a timely interception.

The Sequoits travel to Lake Forest Saturday for a contest with the conference leader. Lake Forest will be sporting a 26 game winning streak Saturday and a victory will give them at least a tie for the conference championship.

Saturday's game has all the ingredients for a historic upset. Well, stranger things have happened.

NICC Shoot Nov. 11th

By Harry H. Stern
The Northern Illinois Conservation Club will hold their Turkey Shoot on Armistice Day, November 11, by decision of the Special Events Committee headed by President Richard Waters and including William E. Brook, Elmer Eberman, Steve Yarnold, Willis Shannon and Publicity Director Harry H. Stern.

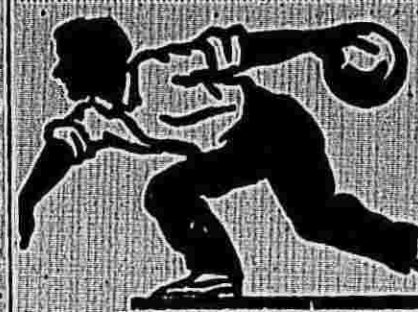

This date will give an opportunity to eager nimrods to obtain a young, mouth-watering turkey in time for Thanksgiving feast, almost in the manner of that used by the early Pilgrim fathers. For those who set out to bag some wild ducks or other game and fail to connect can still bring home the bacon, or rather, the gobbler, for a perfect day. And for those gun fans who just like to shoot, no better reason is necessary. There will also be young ducks and rock cornish hens as prizes for those who prefer them.

Scene of the shoot is one mile south of Antioch on Hwy. 21-83. It will begin at 10 a.m. and continue until dark. Plenty of free parking space has been provided for the participants and visitors, as well as refreshments.

Proceeds from the shoot will be used by the NICC to further their conservation program in all of its aspects, such as reforestation, game fish and bird protection and propagation, rough fish removal, clean lakes and streams and youth indoctrination.

Bears Lose Fifth Game

Wauconda's Bulldogs moved into a three way tie for 4th place Saturday with Grant and Round Lake as they downed Ela-Vernon 20-7.

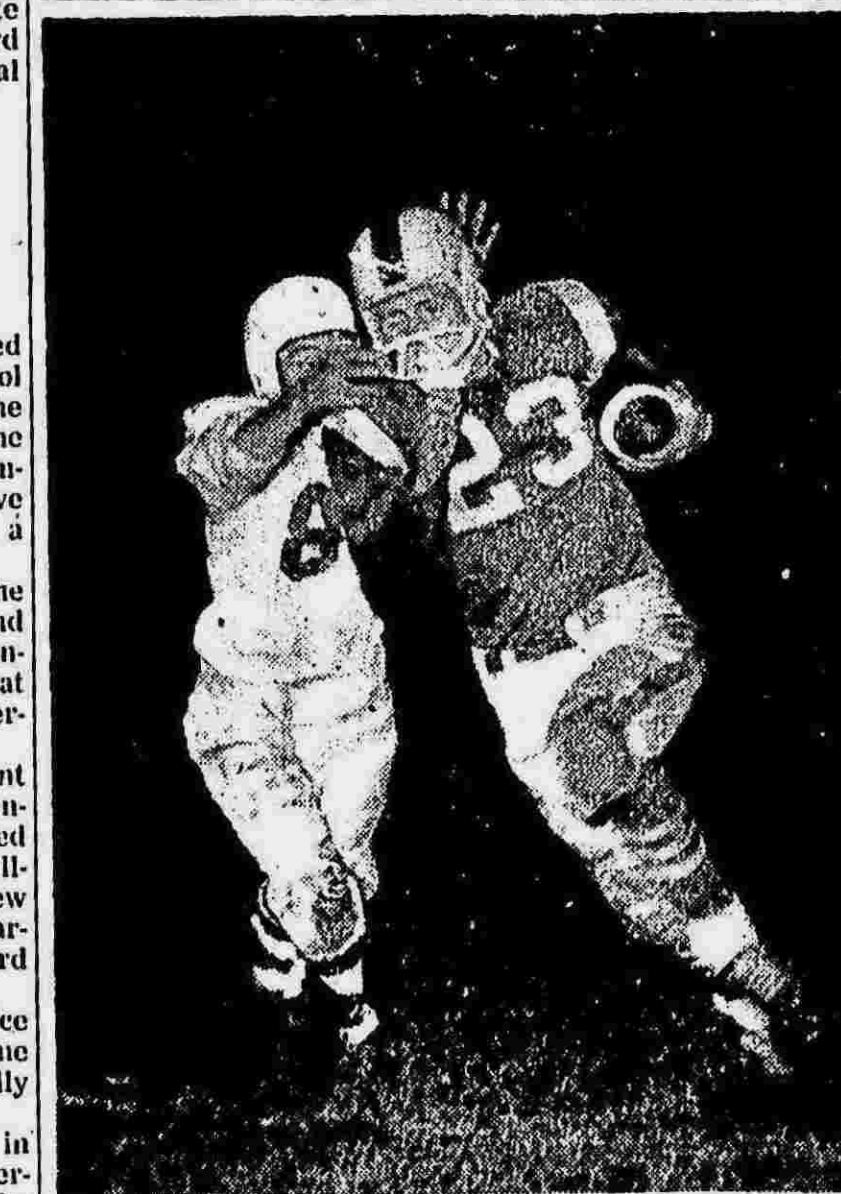

It was the fifth straight loss of the season for Ela's Bears and also spoiled their annual homecoming celebration.

The two squads played to a scoreless tie for the first quarter. Wauconda took advantage of a blocked punt early in the second period to score the first touchdown.

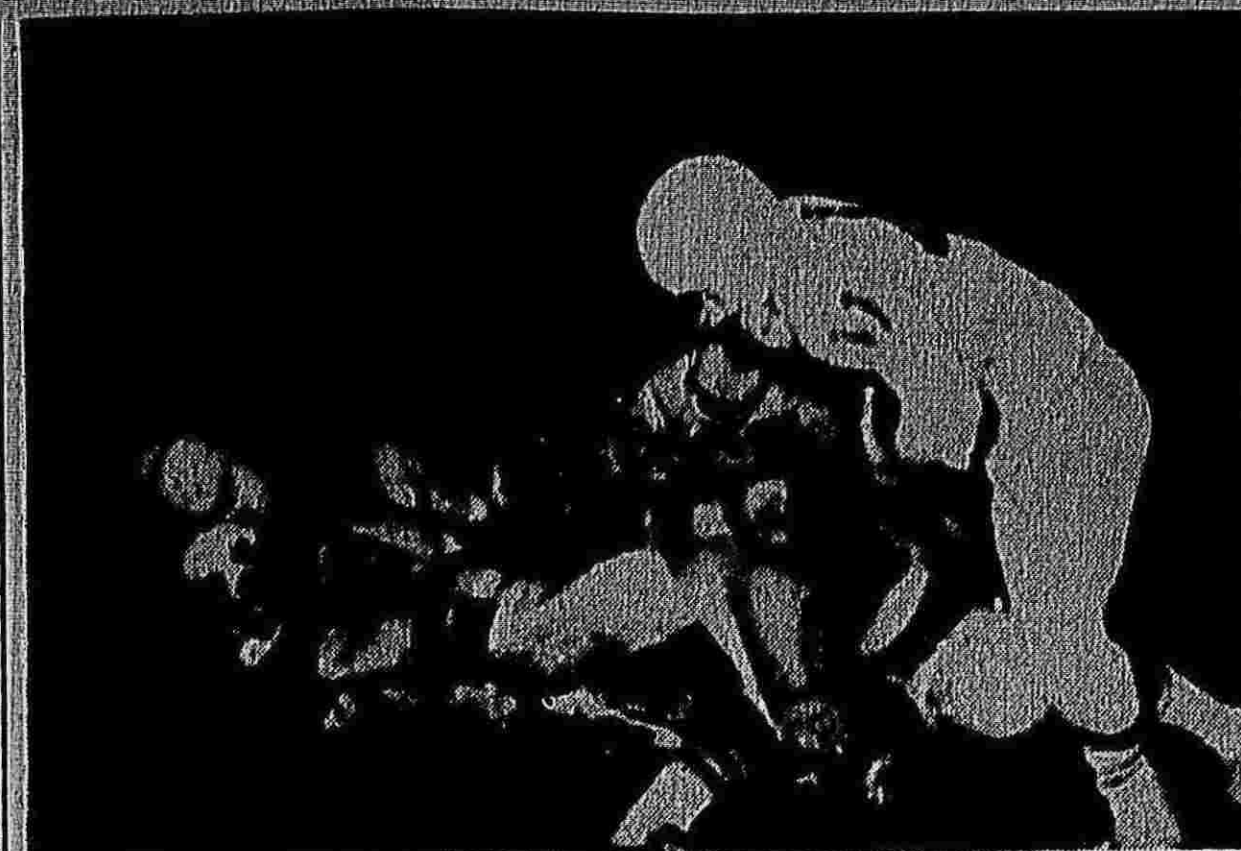

Ela-Vernon struck back quickly and Tom Troch pitched a 15 yard pass to Bill Reitz for the touchdown. Jim Stafstrom converted the extra point on a run and the score remained knotted at 7-7 until 2½ minutes before halftime.

A 40 yard pass play, Miller to Winterroth gave Wauconda a 13-7 edge at intermission.

Wauconda scored again early in the third period with Christ going over from the one yard line. The Bulldogs final score came late in the fourth quarter when Christ smashed over from the 1 yard line.

Approximately 100 persons attended the Sanitary District meeting at the Lindenhurst Civic Center Saturday evening.

The featured speaker was George Cristoph, a trustee of the Gages Lake-Wildwood Sanitary District. Mr. Cristoph, 78, has lived there for 13 years. He spoke of the many problems he went through in forming a Sanitary District in Wildwood. His speech was very informative and cleared up a lot of unfounded rumors that were circulating through Lindenhurst. Mayor Ted Flanagan spoke next on what a sewer project means to Lindenhurst and the cost to the individual home owner. All questions were answered and everyone was satisfied with the information about the Lindenhurst Sanitary District and the future sewer project.

People will have a chance to voice their opinion when an election is held, probably in December or January.

—(Psalms 121:2). We know that God is a help in every need. He helps us to be understanding so that our words are thoughtful and our actions are kind.

When old village president's wife, Lois Flanagan, has to entertain her friends by candlelight, having no electricity, have newspapers cover her windows instead of drapes, a patched tablecloth cover her table, greet her guests in patched garments, and give them bags of groceries or bags of soap when they leave, it looks like the depression had hit us again. But it was all in fun, when she entertained the "Q-T" club at a hardtime party last Wednesday evening. Coming with holes and patches in their dresses, holey socks or stockings were Bernice Frontzak, Lu Stanley, Mille Caldwell, Betty Ireland, Barbara Hendrickson, Mary Tracy and Babe Hartwig.

A car driven by Bud Roberts of Channel Lake was involved in a collision with another car on Lake Avenue near the Channel Lake Food store last week. A car slowed to make a left-hand turn at the store, and was struck in the rear by the car driven by Mr. Roberts.

And while on the subject of cars on Lake Ave., there have been many complaints lately of speeding on this street, particularly near the playground opposite the store. The playground adjacent to "Dutch" Zeilen's home is well-known to all Channel Lake residents. Children frequently dart into the road near this spot, some crossing the road to the store. Slowing down in this area should be automatic for any driver knowing the street.

There have also been a number of complaints of vandalism, particularly in Channel Lake Bluffs. Street signs, fences, and traffic signs have been torn up. Angry residents, however, seem reluctant to inform the sheriff's office of the incidents. The sheriff's office is the proper place for these complaints.

New Members Sought by Bristol Band

The Bristol Band, which has entertained the public at parades and concerts for 35 years, is looking for more members.

Thala Rush is director of the band. Present members number about 50 during the summer, including all performers (baton-twirlers, etc.) and about 30 during the winter.

The reason for the increase in the summer is the great number of students in the band who play in school bands during the winter. A number of students from Senn High School in Chicago, for example, take part in Bristol Band activities in the summer. At one time this past summer, the band had 14 baton-twirlers from Senn working with the group.

Many college students are past members of the band and resume their place when they return home for the summer.

The band supports itself through fees made playing concerts and marching in parades in the summer. During the winter, they play without charge at schools and state homes.

The many beautiful arrangements of musical compositions played by the band are selected by the leader, Thala Rush. The band has a library of selections probably costing, over the years, $1500 to $2000 to which they are constantly adding.

The band is sparked by its leader, Mr. Rush, and its ardent president and trombone player, "Doc" Koehn. "Doc" had to miss a few rehearsals and performances when he was seriously injured in an automobile accident last summer. He returns to practice next week, though he cannot participate for the whole season yet.

The Bristol Band took part in eight parades and six concerts last summer. An ad containing information for new members is elsewhere in this issue.
